TOWN NEWS BRIEF

PARTIES WARNING - Adults can face criminal charges for allowing underage drinking on private property according to police and lawmakers. A 2006 law imposes fines up to $500 and possibly up to a year in prison for any adult convicted of knowingly permitting any minor to possess alcohol on the adult's property and who fails to make reasonable efforts to halt the alcohol's possession and use. Police Chief James Strillacci was the news conference spokesman.

FINDING WORK - The West Hartford Public Library and the town's Department of Human and Leisure Services are mutually assisting job seekers in how to effectively use the internet in their job searches. Free classes are held at the library where applicants receive internet account access with an email account to check the status of their applications. (860) 561-6990.

FEDERAL STIMULUS funds will make for a lighter tax burden say town officials. $1.2 million is coming to West Hartford, separate from earmarked education funding.

PANTRY BAGS NEEDED by the West Hartford Food Pantry. Drop off large paper bags and small plastic bags in the Town Hall lobby.

World NEWS

BEICHUAN - Chinese President Hu Jin-tao led a memorial ceremony in the town of Yingxiu in the sprawling nation's Sichuan Province on the first anniversary of the massive earthquake which left 90,000 people dead or missing and 5 million homeless. Parents who lost children in the natural disaster had been demanding to know how many schools collapsed I the May 12 quake due to shoddy construction and lax building oversight. Other unofficial estimates put student fatalities alone as high as 9,000 out of 70,000 total earthquake deaths.

VATICAN CITY - The Vatican initially denied and then confirmed that Pope Benedict XVI was a member of the Hitler Youth during World War II. Israeli leaders had criticized the German pontiff's Monday address at the Holocaust Memorial for failing to acknowledge his first-hand witnessing of Nazi terror as a youth movement conscript. The self-described 'pilgrim of peace' had previously infuriated Muslims when he linked the Prophet Muhammad to violence and similarly agitated Jews when he lifted the ex-communication of a bishop who had denied the Holocaust ever happened. The Pope's first trip to an Arab country began in Jordan.

COLOMBO - 49 are killed by an exploding mortar shell while waiting for medical treatment in Sri Lanka's only remaining medical hospital. The Tamil Tiger rebels and government forces both denied involvement in the third day of intense shelling.
