TOWN NEWS BRIEF

JASON ROBERTS, organist and choir master at St. James Presbyterian Church, will participate in one of the world's most spectacular young organists competition to be held in St. Albans, England this July. Roberts will be in the Improvisation Competition from which the careers of some of the world's finest organists have been launched. He will compete against five other musicians in the five-day event who will all play on the newly restored organ in the world-renowned 11th century Cathedral and Abbey Church of St. Alban.

PARTIES WARNING - Adults can face criminal charges for allowing underage drinking on private property according to police and lawmakers. A 2006 law imposes fines up to $500 and possibly up to a year in prison for any adult convicted of knowingly permitting any minor to possess alcohol on the adult's property and who fails to halt the alcohol's possession and use.
